

Your Generosity Helps Kids Go to Summer Science Camp

When you buy a ticket to the HVCC Wine and Cheese Party on October 20, just remember that some of that ticket price goes toward the community projects that HVCC helps sponsor.

Shown above are students from the Yucca Mesa Elementary School on an unforgettable learning expedition at Science Camp. The other Science Camps you contributed to were for the children of Landers Elementary and Lucerne Valley Elementary Schools. The kids thank you, the teachers thank you, HVCC thanks you!

The Homestead Valley Community Council are members of the community associations of Yucca Mesa, Flamingo Heights, Landers and Johnson Valley.

The HVCC is an advisory council which addresses issues in common to these rural communities. It meets with local, county, state and federal officials on various matters, giving us a bigger voice than any could have on its own.

If you have a question, discuss it with your community association or come to an HVCC meeting. Guest comments are always first on the agenda.
